REMARKS

The indicated allowability of this application, subject to the making of several corrections both to the drawings, the specification and claim 1 is noted with appreciation. Applicant's attorney apologizes for these errors and believes the foregoing corrects all of them. As to the specification, the running of words and numbers together was apparently caused by the conversion of the Word document into the format made by the authoring tool in force at the time the application was prepared. In the conversion, the program indicated incorrectly that the form was proper. It should also be called to the Examiner's attention that the pagination and line numbers on applicant's attorney's copy is different from that lodged electronically. Therefore if errors still remain, it would be appreciated if the Examiner would telephone the undersigned so that any remaining errors can be appropriately corrected.

However it is earnestly believed that the application is now in proper form and favorable action is solicited.

Respectfully submitted:
